TORONTO, November 29, 2019 – True North Commercial Real Estate Investment Trust (TSX: TNT.UN) (the “REIT”) is pleased to announce it has agreed to acquire a Class “A” office property located at 6925 Century Avenue, Mississauga, Ontario (the “Century Property”).

The purchase price of the Century Property is approximately $87.5 million, exclusive of closing costs, and is expected to be satisfied by a combination of: (i) proceeds from the REIT’s November public unit offering; and (ii) first mortgage financing on the property in the amount of approximately $56.875 million. Closing is expected to be on or about December 12, 2019.

Century Property

The Century Property, commonly known as First Meadowvale Centre 2, is a premier Class “A”, LEED® Gold Certified office property totaling 252,500 that spans a 10-storey office tower featuring new-age tenant spaces, modern common areas and an on-site Tim Hortons. The Century Property offers a total of 895 parking stalls, including 68 underground stalls and 827 surface stalls. Situated on 7.24 acres, the Century Property is located directly adjacent to Highway 401, providing prominent highway visibility along one of GTA’s busiest stretches of highways, and is in close proximity to Highway 407, Toronto Pearson International Airport, Meadowvale GO Station and numerous MiWay bus connections. The surrounding neighbourhoods offer services such as hotels, restaurants, fitness facilities and major shopping centres. With a weighted average remaining lease term of 7.2 years, the complex is 100% occupied with a strong-covenant tenant roster, with credit-rated tenants such as Intact Insurance.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this news release constitute forward-looking information within the meaning of Canadian securities laws. Forward-looking statements are provided for the purposes of assisting the reader in understanding the REIT's financial performance, financial position and cash flows as at and for the periods ended on certain dates and to present information about management's current expectations and plans relating to the future including the successful completion of the acquisition of the Century Property, and the financial performance of the REIT resulting from the acquisition of the Century Property, and readers are cautioned such statements may not be appropriate for other purposes. Forward-looking information may relate to future results, performance, achievements, events, prospects or opportunities for the REIT or the real estate industry, outlook and anticipated events or results, and may include statements regarding the acquisition of the Century Property, as well as the financial position, business strategy, budgets, projected costs, capital expenditures, financial results, financing rates and costs, taxes, plans and objectives of or involving the REIT. In some cases, forward-looking information can be identified by such terms as "may", "might", "will", "could", "should", "would", "occur", "expect", "plan", "anticipate", "believe", "intend", "seek", "aim", "estimate", "target", "goal", "project", "predict", "forecast", "potential", "continue", "likely", "schedule" or the negative thereof or other similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts.

Forward-looking statements necessarily involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which may be general or specific and which give rise to the possibility that expectations, forecasts, predictions, projections or conclusions will not prove to be accurate, assumptions may not be correct and objectives, strategic goals and priorities may not be achieved. A variety of factors, many of which are beyond the REIT's control, affect the operations, performance and results of the REIT and its business, and could cause actual results, including those relating to the acquisition of the Century Property, to differ materially from current expectations of estimated or anticipated events or results. These factors include, but are not limited to, risks related to the trust units and risks related to the REIT's AIF for the year ended December 31, 2018, annual MD&A at "Risks and Uncertainties" and the risks discussed in the REIT's materials filed with Canadian securities regulatory authorities from time to time on www.sedar.com. The reader is cautioned to consider these and other factors, uncertainties and potential events carefully and not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements as there can be no assurance actual results will be consistent with such forward-looking statements.

Information contained in forward-looking statements is based upon certain material assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection, including management's perceptions of historical trends, current conditions, and expected future developments and the financial performance of the REIT resulting from the acquisition of the Century Property, as well as other considerations that are believed to be appropriate in the circumstances, including the following: the ability of the REIT to complete the acquisition of the Century Property and secure acceptable mortgage financing, the Canadian economy will remain stable over the next 12 months; inflation will remain relatively low; interest rates will remain stable; conditions within the real estate market, including competition for acquisitions, will be consistent with the current climate; the Canadian capital markets will continue to provide the REIT with access to equity and/or debt at reasonable rates when required; a wholly-owned subsidiary of Starlight Group Property Holdings Inc. will continue its involvement as asset manager of the REIT in accordance with its current asset management agreement; and the risks identified or referenced above, collectively, will not have a material impact on the REIT. While management considers these assumptions to be reasonable based on currently available information, they may prove to be incorrect.

The forward-looking statements made in this news release are dated and relate only to events or information as of the date of news release. Except as specifically required by applicable law, the REIT undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, after the date on which the statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
