Exhibit "A"

Diversity Policy

1. Purpose and Scope

True North Commercial Real Estate Investment Trust (the "REIT") is committed to a merit based system for the composition of its board of trustees (the "Board"), officers and senior management, within a diverse and inclusive culture that solicits multiple perspectives and views, free of conscious or unconscious bias and discrimination.

Diversity is important to ensure that members of the Board, officers and senior management possess the necessary range of perspectives, experience and expertise required to achieve the REIT's objectives and deliver for its unitholders. The REIT believes that diversity mitigates the risk of group think, ensures the REIT has the opportunity to benefit from all available talent and enhances, among other things, its organizational strength, problem-solving ability and opportunity for innovation.

This document (the "Policy") defines the REIT's policy with respect to diversity on the Board.

2. Definition of Diversity

In this Policy, "diversity" refers to any characteristic that can be used to differentiate groups and people from one another. It includes, but is not limited to, characteristics such as gender, education, religion, ethnicity, race, nationality, culture, language, aboriginal or indigenous status and other ethnic distinctions, age, and industry experience and expertise.

3. Board Diversity

The Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee of the Board (the "Committee") is responsible for, among other things, reviewing and assessing Board size, composition and effectiveness, and for recommending to the Board (i) the trustee nominees to stand for election at each annual meeting of REIT unitholders, and (ii) any candidates for appointment to the Board between annual meetings of REIT unitholders, as appropriate.

When identifying and considering the selection of candidates for appointment or nomination for election to the Board, the Committee, in addition to those requirements set out in the Charter, will:

- assess the Board by considering the balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge on the Board, the Board's cohesiveness and other factors relevant to its effectiveness;
- consider only candidates who are highly qualified based on their experience, education, expertise, personal skills and qualities, and general and industry-specific knowledge; and
- select individuals based on merit, against objective criteria, in order to enable the Board to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

It is an objective of this Policy that diversity be considered in determining the optimal composition of the Board. The REIT believes that a Board comprised of highly qualified trustees from diverse backgrounds benefits from the contribution of different perspectives, experiences and expertise to Board discussions and decisions, promoting, among other things, better corporate governance, performance and decision-making. To support the REIT's Board diversity objectives, the Committee will:

- consider diversity criteria, including, but not limited to, the level of representation of women, when determining the composition of the Board;
- review potential candidates from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives, with the REIT's diversity objectives in mind; and
- in addition to its own searches, as and when appropriate from time to time, engage qualified independent external advisors to conduct a search for candidates, to help achieve the REIT's diversity objectives.

The REIT recognizes that gender diversity is a significant aspect of diversity and acknowledges the important role of women in contributing to diversity of perspective on the Board. In order to promote the specific objective of gender diversity on the Board, the selection process for Board appointees and nominees for election will involve the following steps (including where the REIT engages an external recruitment agency to identify and assess candidates):

- a short-list identifying potential candidates for appointment/nomination must be compiled and must include at least one candidate that is a woman for each available Board position; and
- if, at the end of the selection process, no women are selected from the list of candidates, the Board must be satisfied that there are objective reasons to support this determination.

The Board shall comply with any regulations implemented by the Canadian Securities Administrators and the Toronto Stock Exchange requiring representation of women on the Board.

4. Review of the Policy

On an annual basis, the Committee will (i) assess the effectiveness of the Board and nomination processes at achieving the REIT's diversity objectives; and (ii) consider and, if determined advisable, recommend to the Board for adoption, measurable objectives for achieving diversity on the Board.

In order to ensure the effective implementation of this Policy to promote gender diversity of the Board, the Committee will review the following as part of its annual review of the Policy:

- the number of women considered or brought forward for Board positions;
- the skills, knowledge, experience and other characteristics of candidates that are women to ensure that such candidates are being fairly considered relative to other candidates; and
- the number of women on the Board and the proportion (in percentage terms) of persons on the Board who are women.

At any given time the Board may seek to adjust one or more objectives concerning Board diversity and measure progress accordingly.

Exhibit “B”

Majority Voting Policy for Trustee Elections

The Board of Trustees has delegated the administrative duty and power of the Majority Voting Policy to the Governance, Compensation & Nominating Committee (“GC&N Committee”), and any reference under the Majority Voting Policy, in connection with such duty or power, to the “Board of Trustees” shall be, as applicable, to the GC&N Committee. The Board of Trustees may at any time in its sole discretion supplement or amend any provision of this policy in any respect, repeal the policy in whole or part or adopt a new policy relating to Trustee elections with such terms as the Board of Trustees determines in its sole discretion to be appropriate. All such actions, interpretations and determinations which are done or made by the Board of Trustees in good faith will be final, conclusive and binding.

In an uncontested election of trustees (“Trustees”) of True North Commercial REIT (the “REIT”), any nominee for Trustee who does not receive a greater number of votes “for” his or her election than votes “withheld” from such election (a “Majority Withhold Vote”) shall promptly tender his or her resignation to the Chairman of the GC&N Committee following the meeting of unitholders of the REIT, such resignation to be effective upon acceptance by the Board of Trustees. In this policy, an “uncontested election” shall mean an election in which the number of nominees for Trustee shall be equal to the number of Trustees to be elected. In a contested election, this policy shall not apply and nominees shall be elected by plurality voting.

The GC&N Committee shall promptly consider such tendered resignation and recommend to the Board of Trustees the action to be taken with respect to such tendered resignation. The recommendation of the GC&N Committee may be to accept or reject the resignation on such basis as the GC&N Committee determines appropriate, provided that the GC&N Committee shall recommend acceptance of the resignation if there are no exceptional circumstances present that would support rejection of the resignation. If the GC&N Committee recommends rejection of the resignation, it shall include with its recommendation an indication of what it believes to be the underlying reasons for the Majority Withhold Vote in respect of the subject Trustee.

In considering a tendered resignation and whether exceptional circumstances exist, the GC&N Committee is authorized to consider all factors it deems relevant to the best interests of the REIT, including without limitation: (i) any stated reasons why unitholders withheld their vote with respect to the subject Trustee; (ii) what the GC&N Committee believes to be the underlying reasons for the Majority Withhold Vote, including whether these reasons relate to the incumbent Trustee’s performance as a Trustee, whether these reasons relate to the REIT or another company, and whether these reasons are curable and alternatives for effecting any cure; (iii) the percentage of outstanding units represented by votes cast and withheld from voting on the election of the subject Trustee; (iv) the tenure and qualifications of the Trustee; (v) the Trustee’s past and expected future contributions to the REIT; (vi) the other policies of the REIT; (vii) the overall composition of the Board of Trustees, including whether accepting the resignation would cause the REIT to fail to meet any applicable securities laws and rules of federal and provincial securities commissions and the Toronto Stock Exchange; (viii) whether the Trustee is a key member of an established, active Special Committee which has a defined term or mandate (such as strategic review) and accepting the resignation of such Trustee would jeopardize the achievement of the Special Committee’s mandate; and (ix) whether the resignation of the Trustee could result in the triggering of change in control or similar provisions under any contract by which the REIT is bound or any benefit plan of the REIT and, if so, the potential impact thereof.

If any Trustee who tenders his or her resignation pursuant to this policy is a member of the GC&N Committee, he or she shall not participate in any portion of a meeting of that Committee in which it considers the decision to recommend to the Board of Trustees whether his or her resignation shall be accepted. If each member of the GC&N Committee receives a Majority Withhold Vote at the same election, then the Board of Trustees shall establish a committee composed of the independent Trustees who did not receive a Majority Withhold Vote to consider the resignation offers and recommend to the Board of Trustees whether to accept them, provided that if fewer than two independent Trustees did not receive Majority Withhold Votes in the same election, the Board of Trustees shall establish a committee composed of all independent Trustees to consider the resignation offers and recommend to the Board of Trustees whether to accept them (any such committee established in accordance with this paragraph, together with the GC&N Committee, collectively referred to as the "Committee" in this policy).

If the Committee recommends that the Board of Trustees accept the tendered resignation(s), the Committee shall also recommend to the Board of Trustees whether to fill the vacancy resulting from the resignation through an appointee of the Board or at the next annual meeting of unitholders or at a special meeting of unitholders, or to reduce the size of the Board of Trustees at the next annual meeting of unitholders.

The Board of Trustees shall act on the Committee's recommendation in respect of a resignation tendered pursuant to this policy, by either accepting or rejecting the resignation, within 90 days following the date of the applicable annual meeting. In considering the Committee's recommendation, the Board of Trustees will consider the factors considered by the Committee and such additional information and factors that the Board of Trustees considers to be relevant and shall, absent exceptional circumstances, accept the Trustee's resignation. Any Trustee who tenders his or her resignation pursuant to this policy shall not participate in any portion of a meeting of the Board of Trustees in which it considers whether his or her resignation shall be accepted. Following the Board of Trustees' decision on the resignation, the Board of Trustees shall: (i) promptly disclose, via press release, its decision whether to accept the Trustee's resignation offer including the reasons for rejecting the resignation offer, if applicable; and (ii) forthwith provide a copy of the press release to the Toronto Stock Exchange (by email to disclosure@tsx.com). If a resignation is accepted, the Board of Trustees may: (i) leave the resultant vacancy in the Board of Trustees unfilled until the next annual meeting of unitholders of the REIT; (ii) fill the vacancy through the appointment of a Trustee whom the Board of Trustees considers to merit the confidence of the unitholders of the REIT; or (iii) call a special meeting of the unitholders of the REIT to consider the election of a nominee recommended by the Board of Trustees to fill the vacant position.
